How to Charge the Batteries in a Club Car It Still Runs

A Club Car is a brand of golf cart that can be found at golf courses and retirement communities across the country. As most of them are electric carts, they need to be hooked up to a battery charger on a regular basis, otherwise they won't function the next day. On most other carts, this can be a difficult process

Golf Cart Battery Charger Frequently Asked Questions FAQ

The 48V Club Car chargers are completely different than all other golf cart chargers. They do not have the internal automatic shutoff, the Club Car onboard computer actually controls the shut off. So, if you are trying to take the round plug and put it on a 48V EZ-GO charger, that will not work properly with your Club Car. Visa versa, if you take a 48V Club Car charger and put on an EZ-GO
